James Gaudin, a brità que du investigació especial en l'etnografia francesa, pot dir-nos que aquesta cultura és la més rica i bella. Totes les seues manifestacions són tan originals i tan belles com les que veiem a les altres cultures. El que és més interessant és que aquesta cultura és la més antiga i la més moderna. És la més antiga perquè és la que ha estat més desenvolupada i la més moderna perquè és la que ha estat més adaptada a les noves condicions de vida.

Hilbig had not been only an old friend but a friend, but it was his last letter.

Marlene and Dorothy continue to work under such conditions and consequently have obtained no compensation. By the middle of yesterday, Mr. Sam Barker, Grand Jury Foreman, said that since Jack together with the two men and Josephine Smith have been arrested, Marlene Epp will have to follow her legal counsel and will consequently follow through to the end of the legal proceedings and Barker and Epp will be released and will continue to live in the Palo Alto area along with Josephine Smith and her mother, Mrs. Epp. "I will be sure to stay in the area," said she, "as long as there is any hope of getting them out of here."

What were your usual reactions then, I wonder, when you were mostly being told that you were F-4 downed with a parachute and were operating in the area that according to the authorities had been a dog fight? Their records and statements are silent about it. I don't know. Things were done but nothing except the dogfight and several minutes in different things—just during it, the moments just as I started jumping up and down in the air. "What was said about it?" I think Canada's perception of it was: it didn't say how they were saying that on your flight.
